HSR 212—ADOPTED

(Congratulating Representative Joe H. Golman on his birthday)

Mr. McKissack offered the following resolution:

HSR 212

Whereas, The camaraderie enjoyed by Members of the Texas House of Representatives is particularly evident when it comes time to join a fellow legislator in celebrating a happy event, and such an occasion occurs on Saturday, March 13, when our colleague and friend, Joe H. Golman of Dallas, observes the 47th anniversary of his birth; and

Whereas, Now serving his second term in the House, Joe has acquired the name of one of the best-liked and most dedicated Members of the Texas Legislature; he gives to his legislative service the same enthusiasm which has characterized his many civic and religious activities in his beloved City of Dallas; and

Whereas, In addition to his legislative duties and his always heavy business schedule—he is president of Circle T Foods Company, president of Golman-Hayden, Inc., president of Services Roadway of Dallas, Inc., vice-president of White-Golman and Associates, and a director of the First Citizens Bank, Oak Cliff-Golman Bakeries, and Feld Leasing Corporation of Texas—Joe Golman enters wholeheartedly into numerous projects on behalf of his fellowman; he is a director of the National Jewish Welfare Board, the Julius Schepps Community Center, Congregation Shearith Israel, the Jewish Welfare Federation, and Hillel Foundation of Texas A&M University; in civic organizations he is a director of the State Fair of Texas, the Dallas Crime Commission, the Community Chest Trust Council Advisory Commission, Sports Commission of Dallas, and Help is Possible of Dallas; and

Whereas, By appointment he became a member of the Dallas City Council on November 12, 1962, and began his first elective term in April 1963; reelected in April 1965, he was appointed Deputy Mayor Pro Tem of the City of Dallas one month later; his legislative service began with his election to the House of Representatives of the 61st Legislature in November, 1968; and

Whereas, During his first term Representative Golman served on the important House standing committees on Juvenile Crime and Delinquency, Public Education, School Districts, State Affairs, and Urban Affairs, in the current Regular Session of the 62nd Legislature he is vice-chairman of the prestigious State Affairs Committee, and is a member of the Committees on Juvenile Crime and Delinquency, Public Health, Public Education and Urban Affairs; and

Whereas, Since Joe's birthday falls on the weekend, it is appropriate that the House of Representatives at this time offer this Resolution as advance congratulations on his birthday and that we join him and his office staff in the party in his honor on Thursday, March 11, 1971; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the 62nd Legislature hereby offer felicitations to Joe H. Golman as he celebrates his 47th Birthday Anniversary; and, be it further

Resolved, That an official copy of this Resolution be prepared for Joe so that he and his fine family—his wife, Frances, and children, Julie, Jon David, Tim and Josh—will know the high esteem which his fellow legislators hold for him and the many good wishes which are sent his way for a happy birthday.

The resolution was read and was unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. Coats, the names of all the Members of the House were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

(Mr. Golman in the Chair)

Representative Atwood entered the House and was announced present.

HSR 217—ADOPTED

(Congratulating Representative Robert A. Gammage on his birthday)

Mr. Cruz offered the following resolution:

HSR 217

Whereas, A particularly hardworking and energetic freshman Representative from Harris County celebrates his 33rd birthday this Saturday, March 13, 1971, providing he isn't late for that, as he is for everything else; and

Whereas, He works at keeping his reputation for lateness by taking full advantage of the floor-length "primping" mirror outside his office; and

Whereas, This Representative is definitely past the "age of accountability" and he won't much longer be able to claim that his hair is "prematurely gray"; especially after coping with the hair-raising events of his past election; and

Whereas, The 62nd Legislature is fortunate to have this young educator and attorney numbered among its members; noting that he was a dark-horse winner of the Democratic primary after a run-off election and later defeated his November opponent; his election success, commented his charming wife Judy "is due in a large part to his outstanding ability to 'put his nose to the grindstone'"; and

Whereas, His constant service to the Committees on Higher Education, Juvenile Crime and Delinquency and Youth help him forget his receding hairline and nickname of Puffy the Pizza Pig; and

Whereas, He is requested by other Legislative Members and those who share offices near him to have fun on his birthday but to keep the loudness down by removing his shirt before entering the room; and

Whereas, This Representative is asked by third-floor, west-wing office workers NOT to sing Happy Birthday to himself this year; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives extend sincerest wishes to Robert A. (Bob) Gammage on his birthday, March 13, 1971, and extend congratulations also to his family who share in the celebration of this happy occasion; to his wife Judy; and their children Sara Noel and Terry Lynne; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be prepared for the Honorable Robert A. Gammage as a token of appreciation and high regard from his colleagues in the House of Representatives of the 62nd Legislature.

The resolution was read and was unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. Clark, the names of all the Members of the House were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

(Concerning enforcement of anti-litter laws)

Mr. Rodriguez offered the following resolution:

HCR 75

Whereas, The growing incidence of litter along our state highways taints the beauty of the Texas landscape and creates a deplorable eyesore for the citizens and visitors of Texas; and

Whereas, Litter is not only esthetically degrading, but also is recognized as a potential hazard to the public health and safety; and

Whereas, The Legislature has previously attempted to control the problem of litter by enacting special penal provisions to punish persons convicted of littering the highways and public places, but the problem has not been abated and continues to mount; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Texas, the Senate concurring, That the 62nd Legislature by this Resolution express its desire that the anti-litter laws of our state should be more strictly emphasized and enforced by the law enforcement officers of our state; and, be it further

Resolved, That the Texas Department of Public Safety be requested to assist the Texas Highway Department in pinpointing locations where litter and debris may constitute a hazard to health and safety by having each sergeant include in his inspection reports on the patrolmen under his jurisdiction a statement of hazardous or significant litter conditions noted within any particular patrolman's territory, and that this information, in turn, be transmitted as a part of the Texas Department of Public Safety's reports to the Texas Highway Department on noticeable highway conditions; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared and mailed to the Texas Department of Public Safety and to each law enforcement agency within the State of Texas which has the responsibility and authority to enforce the anti-litter laws, as an expression of the wishes of the Texas Legislature.
